)27. The student's description of the illness was C. dramatic B. creative )28. When the student was leaving the exam room, he realized that A. he had passed the exam B. his last answer was wrong C. the professor was pleased with all his answers D. most of his answers were wrong )29. Which of the following is NOT true? A. The patient will be in danger if he's taken as much as a full spoon. B. A full spoon is more than five drops. C. The patient will be all right soon if he takes one full spoon at a time. D. If the patient wants to stay safe, he should take no more than five drops at a ( )30. Which of the following will most probably happen? A. The student passed the exam. but and and bank of the contract of the brute worth B. The student didn't pass the exam. C. The student couldn't be a doctor in the future. D. The professor gave the student a good mark. Passage 2 阅读短文,根据短文内容,从所给的六个选项中选出可以填入空白处的最佳选项,使 短文意思完整、连贯。(有两项为多余选项) Lots of kids all over the world are enjoying summer camps. 31 Each summer, more than 10 million American children go to different kinds of summer camps. Some camps help you learn other languages in foreign countries. Teachers introduce you to a family in another country. You go and live with them for a while. Every day, you get to talk with them, eat with them and maybe even go to parties. While you are in another country, you can also film a documentary(纪录片) to tell your friends and family about your life there. 32 If you are interested in history, you can go to an archaeology(考古学) camp. There, archaeologists will teach you how to carefully dig old things out of the ground. Then, in a laboratory, you'll find out how old they are. If you like outdoor sports, then go to an adventure camp! Kids do many different things at adventure camps. Canoeing(划独木舟) is just one of them. Doing many things with others is a good way to make friends. If you need a rest, you can go fishing. 33 At some camps, kids do community service(社区服务). Campers clean up their cities or spend time with old or sick people. Summer campers get to meet people from different places and learn how to work with others. 34 So if you want to have fun this summer, why not try going to a camp? A. They also help kids to get stronger. B. They are especially popular in America. C. Summer camps are tiring and boring. D. And when you get back home, you'll have lots of pen pals. E. Of course, summer camps aren't all about adventure or study. F. They go to different places for fun. P3 阅读下面短文,根据短文内容,回答下列问题。 I don't understand the society these days. We are taught at home and at school that using violence(暴力) is the least civilized(文明的) way to work out problems. For example, last week I thought about hitting my friend to win a beautiful stone while we were playing at the beach. Fortunately, we had a friendly talk instead and he gave it to me. When two countries have different ideas, they often fight a war. Why is using violence not okay at home, at school, or in your country but okay between countries?

So many people have been killed because of wars, not only soldiers but ordinary people, Adults(成年人) say they are fighting wars for peace. But can you really get peace by killing so many people? I don't think bombs(炸弹) can reach people's hearts and change them. Bombs can't bring love and safety. Why do adults use violence so even small children and babies.

A war is a great violence, like two people fighting over a stone, just much bigger.

quickly?

Adults might say that things are not that easy. But they are the ones that teach us to be kind, not to hurt people, and not to kill. Why don't they act as what they say? 31. At the beach, how did the writer win the beautiful stone? 32. Why did the writer hate wars between countries? 33. What's the key to peace in the writer's opinion? 34. In your opinion, what is the civilized way to work out problems? TV根据对话内容从所给的七个选项中选出可以填入空白处的最佳选项,使对话内容完 整。(有两项为多余选项)(107) A: Life must have been difficult when you were a kid. B: Oh, not really. 35 A: Well, you didn't have many modern inventions. 36 B: Of course we did! How old do you think I am? The telephone was invented in 1876. A: 37 I bet cars weren't invented yet. B: Sure they were. Cars were invented in 1885. My family had a car. 38 A: Well, did you have a TV? B: No, we didn't. 39 It was so expensive that we couldn't afford(负担) it. A. How about cars? B. We also had one old TV set. C. Why do you say that? D. Can you say it again? E. I think you need to take a history class, Alice. F. For example, you probably didn't have a telephone, right? G. But it had been invented. little finish do that prevent as good as suppose advantage (16') A: Are you still doing your homework? It's getting late. B: Yes, nearly 40! I'm doing a composition: Is life today better or worse than it was fifty years ago? A: And what do you think? B: I think it's better. The most important difference is 41 people are healthier today, and they live longer than they 42 in the past. A: It's true. The 43 is that we know more about medicine today. We are better at 44 illness. But we don't eat 45 in the past, and don't take as much exercise as they did. B: I 46 that's because public transport is much better today. A: Yes, I agree. People walk or use their bikes 47, and they're lazier. Faster transport also makes more pollution. And that makes life more dangerous and less healthy. B. 阅读下面短文, 在短文的空格内填入适当的词, 使其内容通顺。(每空格限填一词)( /0′) If you ask Daniel Radcliffe who acted Harry Potter to pick a special moment from the last year of his life, you will find it almost 48. "Oh, wow, that's really difficult," he said with a smile. "There have been so many things, so many memories that at times it's hard to 49 them all," said Daniel. "But I guess one of the 50 ones was the London premiere(首次公 映) for The Philosopher's Stone. It was just amazing, one of the best nights of my life. But I've had such a great time doing The Chamber of Secrets. I love doing the work. I love meeting new people and being part of the team. It's been great." Daniel has changed. He turned 20 in July, 2009. He is taller, his voice is deeper, and he has become a successful 51, too. Alan and Marcia are a happy 52 who have had an important influence on their only child. Now Daniel and his family are leading a wonderful life in London.