Should students make friends on line? Some people say yes. The internet helps make many friends. Chatting on line, students can more freely express their feelings and opinions, and even get help with their foreign language studies.

Others, however, think students should not. They say making friends on line is a waste of time, which should be spent more meaningfully on study. Besides, some students get cheated on line.

It is my opinion that students should place their study, health and safety before other things. As for friendship, we can readily find it in our classmates and other people around us.

1 M: I can come to your house and pick you up in half an hour. Is that all right?

W: Good. That means you will be here at 8:30.

2 M: How do Jane and Bill like their new home?

W: It's really very nice, but they are tired of the noise of the planes going over their house.

3 W: Can I help you?

M: Yes. I haven't finished reading the book. Can I renew it?

W: Yes. You can keep it for another two months.

4 M: I want to exercise, but never seem to find the time.

W: Why not do it first thing in the morning?

5 W: Now, please tell me exactly when, where and how this happened?

M: Well, I stopped immediately when the light turned yellow, but this man ran into me from behind.

6 M: Excuse me, are you in a hurry?

W: Well, we're having a concert in about ten minutes and I'm late. I usually walk but it's raining. So I'll have to take a taxi.

M: Can I quickly ask you what you do and where you are going?

W: Well, usually I teach music, but at the moment I'm playing the piano at the New York Theater.

M: Oh, and that's where you are going now?

W: That's right. The concert starts at 2 o'clock., so I have to hurry there.

7 W: Hello, may I speak to Mr. Johnson, please?

M: Speaking. Who's calling, may I ask?

W: This is Town Job Center. We have received your e-mail and we are quite interested in you.

M: Can you tell me more about it? What kind of job is it? Where?

W: Well, a college wants to find some laboratory assistants. It's the kind of job you would like to do, as we can see from your e-mail.

M: Yes, I did put that in my e-mail.

W: Yes. They also want a person who knows how to operate the computer, so we think you are just the right kind of person for the job.

M: What about the pay and the work hours?

W: I am coming to that. The pay they have offered is satisfactory, but the work hours are a bit changeable. Sometimes early in the morning, sometimes late in the afternoon.

M: Well, I am interested in it, but I need some more details so that I can talk it over with my wife.

W: Why don't you come here tomorrow?

M: OK, I'll do that. See you tomorrow then. Bye!

8 W: John, do you realize that Christmas is only a month away? We've got to think about Christmas gifts.

M: Yes, and what a lot of relatives we have to think about!

W: Shall we decide what to send them all now?.

M: All right. Let's make a list of names and then decide what to give them all.

W: The children first, I think. What about Anne?

M: She's getting too grown-up for toys. We can let her choose a book.

W: Very well. Now what about Dick? He thinks about nothing but space travel nowadays.

M: Oh, that makes it easy. Shall we give him one of those space travel suits the toyshop has? You know what I mean: there is a big round plastic thing that goes over the head.

W: That's an excellent idea. He'll be quite excited.

M: What about your father?

W: He's fond of music. Perhaps some records.

9 W: Hello, Mr. Green. Come in and sit down.

M: Hello, doctor.

W: What's the matter?

M: I've got a backache.

W: Do you often have backaches?

M: No, I don't. I've never had one before.

W: When did it start?

M: About four days ago.

W: Well. Go home and rest in bed for two days. Then you'll feel better.

M: Can you give me some medicine? It's very painful.

W: No, all you need is rest. Come back in five days and remember not to take any exercise.

10 This is Bob Smith from Channel 13 News. I'm at the scene of a fire that occurred earlier today. Uh, the fire broke out at the three-story building behind me. Uh, unfortunately, we're not able to get any closer because there is still danger. Mm, however, those who happened to be passing by say they noticed fire coming from the building earlier this morning.

It was believed that everyone had been taken to safety, however, one mother, Susan O' Connor, when she returned and noticed the fire, burst into tears because she realized that her 3-month-old baby was still inside. However, some people report seeing the dog, uh, the family dog, pulling the baby to safety by, uh, the baby's clothes.

Fortunately, everyone is reported fine. The baby was taken to the hospital, uh, as well as the dog, but we're happy to say that at this time, it looks like everyone, uh, will be fine. This is Channel 13 News.
