in the second grade. Bella is in Class A and Fiona is in Class B. On the first day of this term. Bella looked around Class A. She knew few of the children. She was very sad there. She missed Fiona. In the art class, Bella sat alone in the classroom. She started painting a sad picture. Then a child named Jerome came and sat next to her. At the end of the art class they laughed. Jerome told Bella about his summer vacation. They both painted pretty summer pictures. Bella started feeling better. The same thing happened to Fiona, too.

Bella's father drove to their school to pick them up that day. Fiona and Bella were very happy to see each other. "Now that you are in different classrooms, we should make sure you can still see each other. Bella, why don't you go to Fiona's house this afternoon? Then next week, she can come to our house," Bella's father said.

Bella and Fiona smiled. They both made new friends at school that day. But they both wanted to keep their old friendship, too.

I saw a short passage in a magazine. I told me how an old woman stayed young. She said staying young was simple. You can keep a good skin and a healthy body by eating, exercising and resting regularly. Then put all attention to the part of your brain and keep it young and growing. Keep your mind awake and you'll stay young all over. Take an interest in the world around you, and try to learn at least one new thing every day. No matter how old you are, it's not too late to make your life more interesting.

There are many good examples for us. I know a housewife with no education before she becomes a well-known engineer. I know an old electrical engineer who becomes a highly-paid fashion designer later. Change the idea that you are too old to go back to school. I know a man who entered a medical college at 70. He got his degree with honor(荣誉) and became a famous doctor. Another man went to a law school at 71 and is now an active lawyer.

Staying young is easy for those, old or young, who live in the future. You can do it if you want enough to try. Keep your mind awake and active: that's the most important thing.
