第一节

W: Excuse me, Can you tell me how much the shirt is ?

M: Yes, it's £ 9.15.

Text 1

W: I thought that your tomatoes are eighty cents a pound.

M: They used to be, but the price has gone up thirty cents.

Text 2

W: Would you please help me with my handbag?

M: With pleasure. But I'd better help you with the big box and these books. I think they are heavier.

Text 3

W: Didn't Betty go shopping with you yesterday?

M: Even if she hadn't had a lot of studying, she would have preferred staying home to going shopping.

Text 4

M: If the traffic wasn't so bad, I should have been home by six o'clock.

W: What a pity! Henry was here to see you.

Text 5

W: What was that noise?

M: It was the pilot putting the wheels down. We must be coming in to land. Are you frightened?

W: You must be joking.

第二节

Text 6

W: Oh, excuse me, Mr Baker, I almost forgot there is a phone message here for you. A Dr Clarke called and asked you to call him back.

M: Where is he now, do you know?

W: he's staying at the Blackwood Hotel, Room 707.

M: Thank you very much. Do you happen to have the number of the Blackwood?

W: I'm sorry , I don't know. But you can get it from information. Just dial 411.

M: Oh, could I trouble you to change a dollar?

W: All right. Here is your change. By the way, the public phones are over there on your right.

M: I see. Thank you.

Text 7

M: Excuse me, Miss.

W: Yes. May I help you?

M: Yes, I'd like to get some information about the summer course at the English training center.

W: Sure. What can I tell you?

M: Can you tell me the starting and finishing date of the course, please?

W: Yes. The course begins on July 15 and runs until August 20.

M: Right, and what course will we learn?

W: well, you have varieties of courses . You have listening and speaking courses, reading and writing. There are also classes in audiovisual training and chances to use the language laboratory as well.

M: Right, and what time will the classes be held?

W: Well, most of them are in the morning. There are only a few classes in the afternoon.

M: Right. Do you have timetable?

W: I'm sorry. My workmate isn't here at the moment, so I can't get a timetable for you yet.

M: That's OK. And when will the final exams be held?

W: At the end of the term. They begin on August 16 and run until August 18.

M: OK. Well , thank you. Miss

Text 8

M: Hello! Can I speak to Susan , please?

W: Speaking. Is that you, Tom?

M: Yes, it is. I am going to New Zealand in two weeks' time, and my wife is going with me.

W: Oh, how lucky you are !How long are you going for?

M: For a couple of months, maybe half a year My boss wants me to help set up a branch company there. Well , Susan , you have been to New Zealand several times. Can you give us some suggestions or tell us about the country?

W: I'd love it. We can have a talk sometime.

M: Why not come over for dinner at my house this weekend. My wife wants to meet you as well.

W: All right. What about Saturday?

M: Ok, see you at 6:00p.m. this coming Saturday. Goodbye!

Text 9

W: Excuse me, Dr Taylor. Your secretary said that I should come right in.

M: Please do, Jennie. How can I help you?

W: Would you please sign your name on my schedule card. Here, on the line above "Adviser's Agreement."

M: Sure. But let's look it over together first. How many courses do you have here?

W: Six.

M: Six? That's quite a heavy load. Any particular reason?

W: I had to drop my chemistry course last term when I went into the hospital. So, I need to take it again.

M: So you've already learned a lot of the material.

W: Right. And calculus is a part of the second-year requirement.

M: Let's see, chemistry, calculus...Oh, I see, you will be in my seminar on The Modern American Novel.

W: Yes, I'm looking forward to it, and the Romantic Poetry seminar, too.

M: Two seminars? That's rather a lot. Can you manage the work?

W: I think so. The introductory economics is fairly easy, and so is the music course.

M: Well, then I'll be happy to sign the card. However, I insist you come to me after the first week of classes, so we can make sure this isn't too much for you.

W: That's a promise.

Ladies and Gentlemen, your attention, please. Our bus will arrive at Lake Park in a few minutes. You can feel the comfortable cool air coming from the lake. This is a favorite place for tourists in the summer, especially on a hot summer afternoon like today. This lake is one of the great wonders of nature. No one knows when or how it was formed. But people began to build houses around the lake a hundred years ago, so in this park you can have a special view of houses of all shapes and styles and colors. It is like an architecture show. In late autumn and winter, this park is the best place for bird watching. School teachers like to bring students here and they just love it.

Now our bus is driving around the lake. You can sit back and enjoy the beauty of everything here. The bus will take us to a good spot, where you can take the most wonderful photos you have ever taken.

Here we are. Please get off and watch your step. Return to the bus in twenty minutes. Thank you!

Notice

The Students' Union has decided to organize a music week. It will be held in the first week of May. The activities include singing pop songs and playing classical and folk music. Bring your own musical instruments, please. A music contest will be included, too. The students who take part in the contest will listen to part of a song or a piece of music, and guess where it comes from. If you' d like to join in the music week, please come and sign up for it before April 20th. The place for the activities will be announced later.

Come to the great fun!
